On 27/06/1389 which corresponds with 18/09/2010, the puppet regime in accordance to their invading masters held a so called election, which had already been rigged, to choose new members of parliament but faced a spectacular failure due to the people not participating in the voting and also because of Mujahideen attacks. Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan had prior rejected these so called elections, had asked the Afghan people not to participate in this American process and given orders to Mujahideen to attack the polling stations and the enemy forces stationed for their protection. The people of Afghanistan and Mujahideen responded to this blessed the call and with the help of Allah SWT, Mujahideen were able to disrupted the so called election process by staging a large amount of attacks. Because of the vast number of attacks, a table has been made to show the regions and the number of attacks that took place.

1 Even the puppet government has admitted to 450 attacks.

2 Out of the 360 districts in the country, 162 districts didn't even open the polling stations, 1260 polling stations closed at 11:00 am and the rest of the polling stations came under Mujahideen attacks.

3 With the exception of a few isolated regions, all the main roads of the country were closed down and under the watchful eyes of Mujahideen.

4 After the voting officially closed at 04:00 pm, Mujahideen attacked and destroyed the vehicles carrying the voting boxes in many areas.

In light of the following points, the so called election processes was a complete disaster. The election is not valid under any existing laws and therefore the results should be rejected.
